

The Sanctuary Spa introduces a new India inspired Signature Range... 'Mela'

Spring 2009 sees us warmly welcoming the eagerly awaited new signature range from The Sanctuary Spa. Ayurvedic teachings on health and harmony have been a valuable source of inspiration for this Indian inspired range, 'Mela' - meaning 'harmony'. As nature intended, each product is paraben free and designed to cleanse, replenish and enhance the body's natural energies.

Indulge in complete harmony...

Celebrating India's traditional use of holistic treatments, ingredients are sourced from each corner of the continent. Only the most carefully selected and truly effective components are combined to create this luxurious range with an exotic fragrance to indulge both mind and body.

Mela Amber & Tamarind Bath Nectar - 250ml £6.49rrp

Precious amber, believed to cleanse and rebalance the body's inner energies, is combined with purifying lotus, soothing magnolia and tamarind, a delicious fruit known for its nourishing and remineralising properties. Together they create sumptuous and soothing bath nectar fit for an Indian princess

Mela Rose & Pistachio Body Butter - 300ml £7.99rrp

For centuries the rose has been prized not only for its beauty, but for its precious oil. Here, soothing rose oil is combined with richly nourishing pistachio, sesame and fenugreek, a herb famed for its powerful restorative properties. Together they create a warmly enveloping butter that nourishes and nurtures the body

Mela Black Pepper & Ginger Scrub - 200ml £5.99rrp

In the Ayurvedic tradition, the warming and stimulating properties of ginger root make it a favourite ingredient. Here it is combined with black pepper oil and the tingling astringency of red hibiscus, while crushed coconut shell provides a luscious exfoliator

Mela Amla & Cardamom Shower Drench - 250ml £5.49rrp

Filled with vitamin C and astonishingly powerful antioxidants, the Amla fruit lives up to the ancient Hindu tradition that the mother goddess nourishes mankind with the fruits of the Amla tree. Combined with fragrant jasmine, aromatic cardamom and the renowned herb Gotu Kola, this rejuvenating creamy wash refreshes the spirit as it cleanses.

The Sanctuary Spa Mela Signature Range is available from Boots stores nationwide, The Sanctuary, 12 Floral St, Covent Garden or shop online at www.thesanctuary.co.uk.
